Website Client Login

As you may have noticed, we have changed our registration software and are pleased to inform you of this new, exciting feature. You can now log in to your account via our website and view your account, recent payments, announcements, etc. You can update payment or contact info or send the office an email through your account.

Visit www.belladance.ca and click on the Client Login (in the home menu, just underneath the banner photo), follow the link to login and if you have not logged into the system yet, click on I don't know my password. Simply enter the email address that you used to register and the system will email you a password immediately. You can then login in with your email address and password.

Please make sure that you login soon to go over your class schedule and pay specific attention to which studio you will be dancing at. Please remember that we will be dancing at 113 Kam Lake Road and 349 Old Airport Road.
